2.1 In respect of the modules which have already been launched and complete in nature such as Employee Master, e-SR, e-APAR, Grievance etc. Nodal Railways are not nominated as the process regarding development is nearing completion.

3. CRIS shall interact with the coordinating officers regarding development of various modules during the course of finalization of workflow, development, testing etc. Any suggestions/modifications furnished by the coordinating officer shall be appraised to Railway Board.

3.1 The coordinating officer will work in coordination with the core teams formed for various cluster of modules. Details enclosed as Annexure-A.

3.2 Till the launch of modules on pan-India basis, the Nodal Railways will be in-charge of the said modules and the PCPOs of concerned Railways may extend all the help to facilitate development and testing. If it is felt that the module is to be tested at more locations other than the Nodal Railways to reflect the real-time functioning, the same can be adopted after consulting Railway Board. In any case, CRIS shall not unanimously put any module on testing at any location without the approval of Board.

3.3 The periodical progress and problems, if any, shall be reported by the Nodal Railways to Board.

3.4 The modules will be launched initially in the respective Nodal Railways through the monitoring of coordinating officer. The pan-India launch of the modules will be done only after being certified by the coordinating officer and endorsed by the concerned PCPO.
